United States.

Your Honor,

Please consider my application for the post of a judicial clerk.

My legal experience began in Nigeria, where I had the privilege of attending one of the foremost Universities in Nigeria, the University of Lagos. I spent 5 years studying law at the University of Lagos. Subsequently, I attended a year of procedural law school in Nigeria. I was licensed to practice law and engaged in the practice for about 5 years before relocating to the United States.

My years of practice in Nigeria gave me a wide depth of experience in diverse areas of law such as business transaction, litigation, criminal trials and consultation with foreign law firms both in the United States and United Kingdom with respect to filing receivership action in Nigeria. During that time, among other things, I contributed to the World Bank's group report.

Prior to law school, I was eager to express myself creatively. To that end, I co-created a project called "oga de law" which was sponsored by the U.S. embassy in Nigeria. It was a radio drama series and a television skit aimed at educating the public about their rights and obligations under the Nigerian Constitution.

After moving to the United States in 2019, I entered law school at the James E. Rogers College of Law, University of Arizona and graduated in 2022. I was fortunate enough to obtain a student internship, and later legal clerkship with the prestigious McCarthy Family Law, during which time I gained a lot of experience with research, writing and observing court trials.

Most law firms in Nigeria engage in general practice. By frequency of the cases that came to our law firm, however, I have practiced most significantly in insolvency law, a reason why I am particularly interested in bankruptcy law, hence bankruptcy clerkship.

I currently clerk for Hon. Casey F. McGinley at the Arizona Superior Court. During my clerkship, I draft both simple and complex under-advisement rulings, orders, process default judgment, carry out thorough legal research, discuss legal matters with the judge, officiate as a bailiff in the courtroom. My courtroom experience has also given me the privilege of direct jury trial experience.

I intend to practice in Texas. As a result, my family and I are planning to move to Texas.

I am excited to gain federal clerkship experience in bankruptcy. I am willing and ready to learn new things. I think my years of experience as a lawyer in a foreign jurisdiction, and judicial clerkship/bailiff experience, with my interpersonal relationship skill, creativity and enthusiasm will contribute a lot to this position. Thank you for considering me.

Yours sincerely,

Theophilus Abolarin

Dear Judge Everett

I am an incoming third-year law student at the University of Oklahoma College of Law. I am writing to apply for a judicial clerkship in your chambers for the 2024-2025 term. I am applying to you with the hopes of continuing to grow my legal career in Dallas, a place where I have long sought to live and practice. My experience at the Oklahoma Attorney General's Office conducting legal research and drafting briefs submitted to the Oklahoma Court of Criminal Appeals last summer inspired me to apply for a judicial clerkship in your chambers. I know that my academic accomplishments, writing skills, and previous experiences will enable me to be a valuable asset to your chambers.

Before law school I attended the Junior Statesman of America camp hosted at Georgetown University, where I studied under esteemed professors and learned from many political figures in the Washington D.C. area. This experience taught me how important our federal system is and inspired me to attend law school. During my time at the University of Oklahoma College of Law, I have earned the American Jurisprudence Award for the Top Grade in Constitutional law, earned positions on the Dean's Honor Roll for multiple semesters, and have maintained standing in the top 30% of my class. Additionally, I plan on taking Federal Courts during the Spring 2024 semester.

Because of my exemplary grades, I was offered a position on our Oil & Gas, Natural Resources, and Energy Law Review Journal (ONE-J). In my time as a member, my writing skills have led me to success. Most recently, my student article, Major Questions Arising from the Major Questions Doctrine: A Look into the Ramifications of West Virginia v. EPA on Climate Change Regulations, was selected for publication in ONE-J's spring issue. This article focuses on the Major Questions Doctrine and how it will impact further federal agency action – a topic currently on the cutting edge of an intersection between constitutional law and agency action regarding environmental concerns. Throughout the writing process, I navigated through decades of Supreme Court precedent on interpretation of Congressional authorizations to federal agencies and produced a thorough look into the potential outcomes of West Virginia v. EPA, --- U.S. ---, 142 S.Ct. 2587, 213 L.Ed.2d 896 (2022) – skills that will carry over excellently to your chambers. These qualities enabled me to successfully run for and be elected as Submissions Editor for Volume 9 of the Oil & Gas, Natural Resources, and Energy Journal for the 2023-2024 years. I believe these skills and experiences have prepared me to excel as a judicial clerk in your chambers.

I have included my resume, writing sample, unofficial transcript, and letters of recommendation. I welcome the opportunity to interview with you, and I appreciate your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Gabrielle A. Acosta

Hon. Scott W. Everett
United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas
Earle Cabell Federal Building and United States Courthouse
1100 Commerce Street, Room 1254
Dallas, Texas 75242

Dear Judge Everett,

I am a foreign-trained attorney with work experience in U.S. financial markets and have completed my LL.M. degree in Banking, Corporate, and Finance Law at Fordham School of Law. I am submitting this application for the clerkship with your chambers. I believe my current experience as a judicial intern to Judge Elizabeth S. Stong at the United States Bankruptcy Court, Eastern District of New York, and my passion for this profession make me a strong candidate for this position.

Through Prof. Susan Block-Lieb's Bankruptcy Law course at Fordham Law, I learned about various chapter filings used for debtors' relief and creditors' rights and became familiar with the United States Bankruptcy Code. Being a former banker and mortgage refinance loan processor, after taking this class, I developed a strong interest in fair distribution of the estate among creditors, as well as helping corporations and individuals seeking debt relief or restructuring. To further improve my Chapter 11 knowledge, I audited a class -Corporate Reorganization in Bankruptcy- taught by Prof. Richard Squire at Fordham Law, while interning full-time at the Bankruptcy Court. In my internship so far, I gained invaluable practical skills through drafting of bench memorandums on motions for stay relief, in rem relief, use of cash collateral, removal to the state court, motions to dismiss, including dismissal for bad faith filing (C-TC factors analysis), object to proofs of claims, convert case chapter 11 to 7, compel rejection or assumption of executory contracts and unexpired leases, and quash subpoena for discovery and examination under Rule 2004, as well as bench memorandums on adversary proceedings, fee applications, case management conferences, loss mitigation status conferences, and plan confirmation hearings.

Last year, during my judicial internship in Justice Margaret A. Chan's chambers in the New York State Supreme Court, Commercial Division, I have gained excellent legal research and writing skills. I assisted in drafting a decision concerning the American Rule, and a substantial amount of my work was incorporated in the final decision. As this opinion plays an important role in shaping the common law in attorneys' fees dispute actions, it was featured and highlighted in the Decisions of Interest column of New York Law Journal.

Having both legal and finance academic background and work experience, I believe I would be a great asset to your chambers. Enclosed please find my resume, school transcripts, writing sample, and recommendation letters. I would be happy to provide any information you may need. Thank you for your time and kind consideration.

Very respectfully,

The Honorable Judge Scott Everett
United States Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of Texas
1100 Commerce Street
Dallas, TX 75242

Dear Honorable Judge Everett,

I am writing to apply for the judicial clerkship position in your chambers. I am a rising third-year law student from Willamette University College of Law and I am excited to bring my legal research and writing skills to your team.

During law school, I worked as an editor for the Willamette Law Review and have amplified my legal research, writing, and precision skills with the breadth and depths of articles I helped publish. This experience has honed my ability to write clearly and persuasively, skills that will be particularly valuable as a clerk.

I am confident that my legal research and writing skills, as well as my ability to work collaboratively with court personnel, make me an ideal candidate for this position. During law school, I refined my legal research and writing skills through various internships and coursework, including a legal writing course where I received high marks for my ability to draft persuasive and well-reasoned legal arguments. In addition, I have experience working as a law clerk at the Oregon Department of Justice, where I gained valuable experience in legal research, writing, and analysis. This experience has further developed my legal skills and prepared me for the challenges of working as a federal judicial law clerk. Furthermore, I am excited to be starting a judicial externship with Justice Bushong of the Oregon Supreme Court in the fall term, and I am confident that this experience will be invaluable in helping me become an excellent clerk.

In addition to my legal research and writing skills, I understand the importance of maintaining ethical standards in the legal profession. I am committed to upholding the Code of Conduct for Judicial Employees and the ethical standards established by the court.

I am particularly excited about the opportunity to work under your mentorship. Your reputation for being a fair and impartial judge, as well as your commitment to upholding the rule of law, aligns with my own values and aspirations. I am eager to learn from your rich experience, knowledge of the law, and unique nature of this specialty court, and I am confident that working with you will help me grow both personally and professionally.

I am excited at the prospect of working in a legal environment that is both challenging and rewarding. I believe that my passion for the law, legal research and writing skills, and commitment to public service make me an ideal candidate for this position. I would be honored to have the opportunity to work in your chambers and learn from your experience.

Respectfully,
Josh Baker

The Honorable Scott W. Everett
United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas
1100 Commerce Street, 14th Floor Courtroom #3
Dallas, TX 75242

Dear Judge Everett:

I am a rising third-year law student at the University of Chicago Law School, and I am applying for a clerkship in your chambers for the 2024 term. I want to clerk in the Northern District of Texas because I have worked as a Summer Associate in Dallas during the past two summers and am committed to forging a permanent legal career in Dallas. As a student who has developed a passion for bankruptcy law, I seek to clerk in your chambers because of my desire to analyze the many novel and complex legal questions that are advanced during bankruptcy proceedings, and my eagerness to learn from your judicial philosophy.

During the 2022-2023 academic year, I refined the skills necessary to be an effective addition to your chambers. I worked in the Kirkland & Ellis Corporate Lab Clinic, where I relied on my innate sense of initiative, attention to detail, and written communication to draft memoranda and revise contracts for large corporate clients. Many of the legal questions I analyzed lacked clear answers, and I welcomed them as challenges to explore obscure issues while drafting succinctly to meet our clients' needs. I am excited to return as a Student Director and manage a group of students by delegating projects and editing their legal writing. As a Research Assistant for Professor Anthony Casey, I have had the opportunity to further sharpen my research and writing skills while engaging with fascinating topics in bankruptcy law like the resolution of mass tort claims through the bankruptcy process.

My passion for bankruptcy law extends outside of the classroom as well, as I have recently joined IWIRC and INSOL as a student member. I am thrilled to advance my commitment to developing a bankruptcy practice and learn from those also passionate about bankruptcy law. I hope to develop my career as a recent law school graduate and future bankruptcy attorney in your chambers by delving into complex issues that have become my favorite to explore. I am confident that my passion for bankruptcy law, research and writing skills, and willing and enthusiastic attitude would make me an invaluable asset to your chambers for the 2024 term.

A resume, transcript, and writing sample are enclosed. I am also expecting one grade in October 2023 for Comparative Race, Ethnicity and Constitutional Design. Letters of recommendation from Professors Casey and Avratin will arrive under separate cover. Should you require additional information, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Sincerely,

Mica G. Beckmann-White

Dear Judge Everett:

I am a rising third-year student at SMU Dedman School of Law, and I am writing to apply for a clerkship with your chambers beginning in 2024. Clerking in your chambers would be an honor, and I believe my interest in bankruptcy combined with my experience in chambers would allow me to contribute meaningfully to your work. I have sincerely enjoyed every opportunity I have had to study and observe bankruptcy practice. This is an area of the law I take great interest in, and I am strongly committed to staying and pursuing a legal career in the DFW area. Clerking for you in particular would be a privilege as I admire your accomplishments in the legal field, your unique perspective as a practitioner, clerk, and judge, and your ties to DFW.

I earned bachelor's and master's degrees in English Technical Writing and Rhetoric, and I also endeavored to cultivate my legal writing through participation in the International Law Review Association, multiple drafting courses, and internships and externships with Federal judges. During my undergraduate and graduate degrees, I analyzed documents, prepared research, and explained the application of such research both orally and in written form. In law school and while clerking for firms, I have connected these skills to the practice of law and narrowed my focus to bankruptcy in particular.

Through my opportunities with Judge Manske and Judge Morris I drafted and submitted a variety of writing assignments and worked directly with the clerks in both chambers to analyze what worked well and areas to improve for the future. I not only obtained an inside perspective of the federal judiciary, but I also gained exposure to bankruptcy practitioners and judges in action and reaffirmed my interest in pursuing this area of law. I initially was drawn to the distinctive blend of transactional and litigation skills in bankruptcy work, and after gaining hands-on experience researching and observing bankruptcy proceedings, I have cemented my desire to pursue a practice in this area and hope to start my career in bankruptcy chambers.

These opportunities gave me the foundational understanding of the role of a law clerk and reaffirmed my interest in serving as a post-graduate bankruptcy law clerk. Building on these experiences, I am prepared to be an asset in your chambers and continue to grow as a legal advocate and bankruptcy professional. I have included for your review my resume, transcript, writing sample, and letters of recommendation. I appreciate your time and consideration of my application, and I would welcome the opportunity to interview with you.

Sincerely,

Sarah Boronkay

Dear Judge Everett:

I am a rising third-year law student at the University of Chicago Law School, and I am excited to apply for a clerkship in your chambers. I was born and raised in Prince George's County, Maryland. I believe that clerking for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas would provide me with a practical understanding of trial proceedings and expose me to a wide range of legal topics. In addition, I value the opportunity to develop excellent research and writing skills as a clerk in your chambers. I am particularly interested in clerking for you and would value your mentorship as I begin my own career as a litigator.

Serving in leadership has given me the collaborative skills needed to work in close quarters on important issues. As President of our Black Law Students Association, I put action to my strong commitment to legal diversity, leading a team of ten people to provide academic and professional opportunities to law students and future law students. This experience also gave me a strong belief in the importance of being a collaborative team player. I understand the value of contributing and elevating different perspectives to the important work of the court.

I also have strong legal research and analytical skills. Prior to law school, I gained practical experience as a paralegal by assisting attorneys in drafting legal documents and memoranda, performing legal research, and preparing evidence for trial. During trials, I was tasked with taking notes, preparing witnesses, providing feedback on courtroom climate, and generating new exhibits as needed. I formed an interest in litigation and clerking after working on my first trial. I found the opportunity to observe attorneys in the courtroom and their interactions with the judge intriguing and insightful. At Sidley Austin, I worked on a variety of litigation projects, including DOJ investigations regarding criminal charges and antitrust violations. I also collaborated with associates on a legal brief analyzing complex contract damages provisions. These experiences as a Summer Associate further solidified my interest in litigation.

My resume, transcript, and writing sample are enclosed. Letters of recommendation from Professors Emily Buss, Ryan Doerfler, and Michael Morse will arrive under a different cover. Should you require additional information, please let me know.

Sincerely,

/s/ Sydney Chapman

Dear Judge Everett:

I am writing to express my interest in the 2024-2025 Judicial Law Clerk position with your chambers. I am currently a rising third-year law student at the Paul M. Hebert Law Center, Louisiana State University. Born and raised in the small town of West Monroe, Louisiana, I have always loved when I could visit the great state of Texas. It would be an honor to begin and build my legal career serving as a clerk for you in the wonderful city of Dallas.

Prior to law school, my academic background was focused on English. I graduated with honors from the University of Louisiana Monroe with a B.A. in English and acquired a passion for researching, writing, and editing. This passion transcended into law school where I now serve as the Articles Editor for the Louisiana Law Review. As a former Junior Associate and now Board Member, I have become more meticulous, accurate, and thorough with my skills.

With my experiences as a judicial extern and research assistant, I believe I would make a strong addition to your chambers. As an extern for Judge John deGravelles in the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Louisiana, I wrote thorough and analytical memorandums and motions. I also frequently research court documents for Professor Lisa Avalos as a research assistant. These experiences have grown my ability to think and write clearly about nuanced legal questions.

Enclosed please find my resume, official law school transcript, and writing sample. My writing sample is my unedited memorandum from my legal writing course. I also have provided letters of recommendations from three professors I have worked closely with during my time as a law student. Please let me know if I can provide any additional information. I would welcome the opportunity to interview with you and look forward to hearing from you soon.

Respectfully,

Sydney Curtis

The Honorable Judge Scott Everett
US District Court for the Northern District of Texas
100 Commerce Street, 14th Floor, Courtroom #3
Dallas, TX 75242

Dear Judge Everett:

I am applying to serve as your law clerk for the 2024-2025 term. I am a second-year student at the Paul M. Hebert Law Center, Louisiana State University, where I am a member of the Journal of Energy Law and Resources (JELR). I am currently ranked 5/216. I earned the CALI award for excellence in Legal Research and Writing II and Mineral Rights. My journal paper, which is on the possible solutions to the property insurance crisis in Louisiana, has been selected for publication in next year's issue of JELR.

I have enclosed a writing sample from my appellate brief 1L year. I am unable to share other work product as it is property of the Middle District of Louisiana. My appellate brief is minimally edited by others and shows my analytical ability. My recommenders are: Prof. Krousel (225-578-5310; krousel@lsu.edu), Prof. Norton (225-578-3528; tracynorton@lsu.edu), and Prof. Brooks (225-578-6635; jeffbrooks@lsu.edu). Letters will be forthcoming and submitted through OSCAR.

After completing my 1L year, I spent the summer as an extern for Chief Judge Shelly D. Dick in the Middle District of Louisiana. I returned to extern with Judge Dick again this Spring (2023) to learn more. In my time there I have drafted legal memoranda for clerks and draft rulings in a variety of areas (i.e., employment, contracts, products liability, insurance).

I entered law school as many do—clueless as to my career path. I knew I wanted to practice law, but I had no idea where I would fit in. During my time in the Middle District, I have learned two things. First, a judicial clerkship is an incredible opportunity to hone my skills while meaningfully contributing to public service. Second, my passion in the legal field is litigation. After clerking, I plan to enter private practice and litigate.

I respectfully ask that you consider my application to clerk in your chambers. I would welcome the opportunity to interview with you, and look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Colton Duhon

Dear Judge Everett

I write to submit my application for a 2024–25 clerkship in your chambers. I am a 2L at St. Mary's University School of Law, where I am the Editor in Chief of the St. Mary's Law Journal. I earned my B.A. from Baylor University.

In law school, I have maximized my opportunities to research, write, and learn about different areas of the law. On the Law Journal, I edited four articles. One required researching international law. For this assignment, I examined Nigerian and Kenyan constitutional law and researched how these legal systems addressed the rights of internally displaced persons. I also drafted a journal comment on the ethical responsibilities of personal injury attorneys. The comment discusses how lower fee arrangements may reduce the effort a personal injury lawyer expends on a case and the ethical implications of such conduct. Further, as a research assistant, I edited and cite-checked multiple chapters of Federal Evidence Tactics. I have also taken an advanced legal seminar, in which I drafted a detention order, a suppression order, and a proposed judicial opinion for a prisoner civil rights case. Combined, these research and writing opportunities have challenged me to think critically about different legal issues. I believe they have adequately prepared me to be a law clerk.

I also believe my work ethic and ability to multitask will make me a value-add to your chambers. I am constantly working on multiple projects, and I consistently complete them with efficiency. As Editor in Chief of the Law Journal, I manage the production of four different issues, oversee several large-scale events, and ensure our members comply with our bylaws. I recognize the importance of being organized, which is essential to meeting deadlines and maintaining my grades. Accordingly, I believe my sense of professional integrity will make me an effective and reliable law clerk.

Enclosed are my resume, list of references, writing sample, and transcript. If you need additional information, please reach me by phone at (361) 815-1984 or email at melizondo17@mail.stmarytx.edu. Thank you for your time and consideration.

The Honorable Scott W. Everett
United States Bankruptcy Court
Northern District of Texas
1100 Commerce Street, 14th Floor
Dallas, Texas 75242

Dear Judge Everett:

I am currently a second-year student at The University of Texas School of Law and I am applying for a 2024-term clerkship in your chambers. As an aspiring trial attorney, I am particularly interested in clerking for you due to the wide variety of matters that arise in bankruptcy proceedings. I am excited at the prospect of starting my career in such a dynamic and interesting environment.

Throughout my life I have sought out and embraced the uncomfortable. This led me to study law after college, encouraged me to pursue a skydiving license, and now uniquely qualifies me to work as your law clerk after graduation. Skydiving taught me to jump headfirst into challenges and trust my instincts. Similarly, the ever-shifting legal landscape consistently yields new challenges. Adding depth to the black letter of the law requires more than technical legal skills. It requires creativity, the ability to adapt quickly to complex and challenging situations, and the desire to humbly serve. While law school taught me the concrete skills to approach a problem, skydiving gave me the spirit and drive to go beyond that. As a clerk, I will bring the spirit and grit I learned from skydiving, along with the unquantifiable, nebulous drive that spurs creativity and breathes life into the black letter of the law.

My application includes a resume, transcript, list of references, and a writing sample. Letters of recommendation from Professors Adam Klein and Jeffrey Rows have also been added to the application by the Law School. I have requested that the clerkship office also separately send an additional recommendation letter from Alex Wolens once it has been received. These recommenders may be reached as follows:

- Professor Adam Klein, The University of Texas School of Law adam.klein@law.utexas.edu, 202-329-6271
- Professor Jeffrey Rows, The University of Texas School of Law jeffrey.rows@austin.utexas.edu, 703-599-2307
- Alex Wolens, Winston & Strawn, LLP, awolens@winston.com, 214-453-6485

In addition, the Law School's clerkship advisor, Kathleen Overly, is available to answer your questions. You may reach her at koverly@law.utexas.edu or 512-232-1316. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Re: 2024–2025 Judicial Clerkship Position

Dear Judge Everett,

My name is Margaret Ford, and I am currently a third-year student at St. Mary's University School of Law. I am writing to express interest in the clerk position with you at the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas. After reviewing the application requirements, I believe my work ethic, coupled with my enthusiasm to expand my knowledge of the law, make me the perfect candidate for the clerk position.

Before beginning law school at St. Mary's, I worked alongside several personal injury attorneys at various firms in an effort to rectify the wrongs committed against innocent people who lacked the ability to do so themselves. While that work formed the basis of my law experience, my desire to assist those in need first came to be when I lived in Quito, Ecuador for several years as a young girl. After witnessing the inconceivable poverty and inequity in Ecuador, I knew that my calling was to help those who could not help themselves.

After returning from Ecuador to the United States, I continued in my efforts to learn more about ways in which I could promote the rights of unrepresented groups. While at Bowdoin College, I double majored in Government and Legal Studies and Hispanic Studies with a concentration in International Relations. After studying Spanish throughout college and living in Spain for a semester, I became fluent in Spanish. Now, while at St. Mary's, my goal is to acquire a more comprehensive understanding of the law and explore a wide variety of fields of law. In fact, last summer, I had the opportunity to complete an internship at the Comal County District Attorney's Office, working primarily with victims of family violence and sexual assault. Moreover, as a Staff Writer for the St. Mary's Law Journal, I was able hone my focus and writing skills even closer on marginalized groups as I researched my comment topic, which explored the fairness and practicability of Batson challenges in racially biased criminal trials. These two experiences not only afforded me hands-on experience and research-intensive exposure to the field of criminal law, but also allowed me to do precisely what I set out to do many years ago: help those who cannot help themselves. Having had this experience, I am eager to expand my scope of knowledge and explore the legal system from an entirely different vantage point. For that reason, I applied for and was lucky enough to receive opportunities to work with three extremely knowledgeable judges, one at the state appellate level and two at the federal district court level, this summer and this coming spring, all in an eager effort to expand my scope of legal knowledge as much as I possibly can.

While working under the judiciary will undoubtedly be very different than representing individual clients or prosecuting criminals, the overall mission—a zealous and faithful pursuit of justice—remains the same. This is precisely what I want to learn how to do. Moreover, as a woman, a first-generation law student, and a member of the LGBT community, I believe I will be able to offer a unique perspective in finding innovative solutions to complex legal issues. I would be absolutely honored to have the opportunity to clerk for you and help further Texas' judiciary system in its aim towards equity and justice. Thank you so much for your consideration, and please do not hesitate to contact me for additional information. I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,
Margaret Ford

Dear Judge Everett,

I am a third-year student at the University of Arkansas at Little Rock William H. Bowen School of Law and a member of the Law Review, and I am writing to apply for a term clerkship in your chambers beginning in October of 2024.

While working on projects involving bankruptcy and attending hearings this summer, I realized how valuable it would be to see proceedings from the court's perspective. I intend to practice bankruptcy law as my primary area in the future. An opportunity to play a part in hearings, draft opinions, and observe the court system as a whole under your tutelage is an opportunity that I believe will be paramount to my success as a future lawyer.

From my resume, you can see that I did not take the typical route to law school. My prior post-graduate work experience, as well as my athletic career, have allowed me to develop the ability to work collaboratively with others and hone my leadership skills. These skills, coupled with my willingness to learn and prior work experience, will help me to be a contributing member of your staff. As my law school record shows, I will be an employee who is eager to learn and quick to absorb new information.

Enclosed please find my resume, academic transcript, and my writing sample. The writing sample is a memorandum discussing a discrimination claim made by an airline passenger. If there is any other information that would be helpful to you in your review, please let me know, and I will get that to you. Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

The Honorable Scott W. Everett
United States Bankruptcy Judge
United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas
1100 Commerce Street, 14th Floor Courtroom #3
Dallas, Texas 75242

Dear Judge Everett:

Please accept this letter and accompanying materials for a term law clerk position in your chambers for the 2024-25 term. I am a first-generation law student at the University of Mississippi School of Law from Selma, AL. I am interested in clerking for you for several reasons.

First, I enjoy writing and research and would like to refine my skill set after graduation. Second, much like your family greatly impacted your life, so did mine. I was taught to work with a spirit of excellence, always treat others with respect and to serve others without looking for credit at all times. Those lessons greatly impacted my decision to pursue a legal career when my family could not find any legal representation for a close relative who was in the wrong place, at the wrong time. After the proceeding, I wanted to learn how judges made legal decisions that impacted lives and how I could become part of the solution. Third, I want to pursue a career as M&A litigator in Texas. I believe the experience in your chambers will allow me the chance to conjoin my experience as a teacher and engineer to my role as a lawyer through listening to both sides of the facts, maintaining an acute attention to details, and applying the law accordingly in each case. Under your guidance, I will continue my development from a good writer to an excellent writer while gaining insight on how to approach each case.

Through my internship and academic experiences, I have developed skills to become an effective law clerk. This past summer, I was fortunate to intern in the chambers of the Honorable Amos Mazzant, III of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas. Furthermore, I served as an intake coordinator for the Dallas Volunteer Attorney Program.

As a judicial intern, I was exposed to a multitude of legal matters and wrote several memorandum opinions on trademark infringement, breach of contract claims, compassionate releases, and product liability disputes. I learned how to analyze complex controversies while having a keen attention to detail to use objective and subjective reasoning. As an intake coordinator, I connected impoverished individuals with attorneys who could represent them for the public good on various matters, such as child custody, criminal expungement, Chapter 7 bankruptcy, employment discrimination, and veterans' benefits. I conducted initial conferences and submitted briefings about each case requesting representation.

This year, I became the first African American to serve as Editor-in-Chief of the Mississippi Law Journal. This role allows me to sharpen my editing, blue-booking, legal research and writing skills while leading a 40-member editorial board. I also served as the lead brief writer and first chair for my team on the Mississippi Moot Court Board. This upcoming year, I will also be a member of the University of Mississippi's MacArthur Justice Clinic, where I will have hands-on experience in criminal litigation and public policy matters in Mississippi. Thus, I believe that my well-developed legal research skills, conjoined with my various legal experiences, would be an asset to your chambers.

My résumé, unofficial transcript, and writing sample are submitted with my application. Letters of recommendation from professors Larry Pittman, William Wilkins, and Yvette Butler will be mailed under separate cover. I would welcome the opportunity to interview with you either in person or over Zoom at your convenience. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Nivory Gordon, III

Dear Judge Everett:

My name is Madison Gray and I am a rising third-year student at the University of Mississippi School of Law. I am applying for the clerkship in your chambers for the 2024 – 2025 term. I am hoping to relocate to Dallas following graduation and remain there long-term because of my significant other, and I know that judicial clerkships provide a great opportunity to enter a new market.

I am especially interested in a bankruptcy court clerkship as opposed to other courts because of interest in transactional and corporate law. Getting first-hand experience in the complex litigation and business restructurings that are dealt with in bankruptcy court would be an invaluable opportunity and extremely useful in my future practice as a transactional attorney. Additionally, your experiences as a clerk for Judge Ronald B. King, the Tenth Circuit Bankruptcy Appellate Panel, and Judge Mark X. Mullin means that I would be learning about bankruptcy law from someone who has spent their career practicing in it. Clerking in your chambers would allow me to learn the judicial process of the bankruptcy court while also honing my research and writing skills.

I believe I am a good fit for this clerkship because of my background in accounting. I have a Bachelor's and Master's degree in accountancy, and I have completed internships at HORNE LLP and KPMG. I was also selected for the Business Law Fellowship Program at Ole Miss, and my time on the University of Mississippi School of Law Negotiation Board has allowed me to develop strong communication and negotiation skills. My time as a staff editor for the Mississippi Sports Law Journal has also given me strong research and writing skills.

I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to further discuss this clerkship and my qualifications with you. If there is any additional information you would like from me I can be reached at 601-331-3912 or Madison.gray98@gmail.com. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

I am a rising third-year student at Emory University School of Law, and I am writing to express my interest in a judicial clerkship following my graduation in 2024.

During the summer following my 1L year, I was selected to be a member on the Emory Bankruptcy Developments Journal. This was my first exposure to bankruptcy law. Since then, I have earned the second-highest grade in my bankruptcy course, wrote a 45-page comment on tribal debtors, and accepted an externship with the United States Trustee. I can confidently say bankruptcy law is a field I am dedicated to, and am excited to learn more about as I pursue a career in bankruptcy after law school.

In addition to my bankruptcy-specific experience, I have spent two summers working in litigation-focused roles. Although completely different areas of law, both positions placed me in settings with a high volume of cases and delegated significant responsibility to me. Resultantly, I am well-acquainted with legal writing and research and have written countless motions, memoranda, and proposed orders in a fast-paced environment.

Thank you very much for considering my application. I have enclosed my application materials for your review, and I look forward to hearing from you about the possibility of arranging an interview. You can reach me at (864) 710-0778 or hayden.hall@emory.edu.

Respectfully,

The Honorable Judge Scott Everett,

I am applying for the 2024 Bankruptcy Law Clerk position in the Dallas division of the Northern District of Texas. I greatly appreciate your consideration for this position. I believe that this would be a great opportunity given your Court's location and the ability to combine my past studies to a bankruptcy court setting.

The Bankruptcy Court of the Northern District of Texas is ideally suited. Dallas has experienced significant economic growth within the past few decades and this Court has a caseload that is unique to the area. As a result of this growth, the Northern District has both complex Chapter 11 cases as well as many consumer debtor cases. Combined with the relative proximity to my hometown of Norman, Oklahoma, this Court would be an opportunity to gain great experience and stay relatively close to family.

As stated in my resume, I am a third-year law student at the University of Oklahoma College of Law. My accounting, economics, and finance background have allowed for me to approach legal situations from a business standpoint. My past two summers working in litigation firms have also provided me with invaluable experience in the drafting of motions, creation of memorandums, and further development of my understanding of civil cases. However, bankruptcy has been an area of legal practice that is of interest to me as a result of my law school and undergraduate studies. The classes that have been of the most interest to me in law school have been bankruptcy, secured transactions, and other business focused legal subjects. Much of the research for my law review this past year was focused on exploring more intricate aspects of bankruptcy law. I look forward to exploring other areas of law during my internship.

Thank you for taking the time to consider this application, and I look forward to meeting at a time that would be convenient. Feel free to contact me at (254)760-0021 or email me at jake.hulin98@gmail.com to find a time that would work best for you. Thank you again for considering me for a clerkship position in your Court and I look forward to speaking to you soon.

Sincerely,

Jake Hulin

Dear Judge Everett:

I am a rising third-year law student at The University of Alabama School of Law, where I serve as the Lead Articles Editor for the Law and Psychology Review and a member of the Campbell Moot Court Board and Duberstein Bankruptcy Moot Court Team. I am writing to apply for a 2024-2025 term clerkship in your chambers.

I was introduced to bankruptcy law by Judge Jennifer Henderson, Chief Judge for the Northern District of Alabama Bankruptcy Court in fall of 2022 through her bankruptcy law course. Judge Henderson's passion for bankruptcy was evident and contagious in each class. The practical implications and core principles of bankruptcy—for both individuals and businesses—quickly made it my favorite area of law. I was selected to my first-choice moot court team at the close of the 2L Alabama Law Moot Court Competition. This allows me to further my passion for bankruptcy law by competing on The University of Alabama Duberstein Moot Court Team in Miami and New York City in spring of 2024.

I also developed a passion for writing through law school and summer positions at litigation-focused firms. This passion led to me scoring more than ten points above median on my individual moot court brief in the 2L moot court competition. Additionally, I will serve as a judicial extern in the chambers of the Honorable L. Scott Coogler, Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama this fall. I believe that my passion for bankruptcy and writing continues to prepare me to contribute meaningfully to your chambers.

My resume, undergraduate and law school transcripts, and writing sample are provided in my application, along with letters of recommendation from Professors Benjamin McMichael and Cameron Fogle and Mr. Jarrod Bazemore. Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

Parker Jennings

The Honorable Scott W. Everett

Dear Judge Everett,

Please consider my application for a clerkship in your chambers for the 2024-2025 term. I am a third-year law student at Seattle University School of Law and will graduate in the spring of 2024. Seattle University School of Law has decided to not participate in national rankings beginning in 2023. However, in 2022, they were ranked as having one of the top ten legal writing programs in the country (tied at #8 with Georgetown University, according to US News Law School Rankings).

As my resume and letters of recommendation illustrate, I have a strong background in legal research and writing, as well as a keen eye for detail. Depending on who you ask, my attention to detail may be either a strength or a weakness, but if you ask me, details matter. In fact, I was the only student in an advanced legal research course that found a citation error Harvard Law Review made involving Bluebook Rule 10.5 and subsequent histories.

Since entering law school, I have conducted extensive legal research in preparation for memos and appellate level brief assignments. During my first year, I earned a scholarship for writing one of the top two legal briefs in my class. During my second year, I wrote an appellate level brief and earned an A grade. During externships, I have written legal memos covering business structures and international trademark laws, letters explaining the law to clients, and both initial and appellate level briefs for complex veteran's benefits claims.

In law school, I have worked full-time while taking full-time credits each semester, engaged in leadership within two student-run organizations, earned an executive board position on a journal, and participated in several externships. I have successfully navigated all of this while ranking in the top 15% of my class. While not on my resume, I plan to participate in a judicial externship in the fall of 2023.

I am eager to expand on my experiences by working as a clerk in your chambers, and will apply the same commitment, motivation, and energy that I have for law school to the work that I perform for you. Please let me know if I can provide any additional information. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Dear Judge Everett:

I am writing to apply for a clerkship in your chambers beginning in 2024, or during a later term. I am a rising third-year student at Wake Forest University Law School, where I actively contribute to the Wake Forest Law Review and Moot Court team. I have attached a resume, law school grade sheet, undergraduate grade sheet, and a writing sample.

What sets me apart as an applicant is my unique perspective as a first-generation college student. Growing up in an environment where higher education was not a common path, I have cultivated a strong work ethic, resilience, and resourcefulness that have been instrumental in my academic achievements. This background allows me to approach legal issues with a fresh and empathetic perspective, making me well-suited for the challenges of a clerkship.

I am particularly drawn to the clerkship opportunity within your chambers due to my involvement in bankruptcy litigation in my current summer associate position. This experience has instilled in me a strong desire to gain practical experience and develop a comprehensive understanding of the intricacies of bankruptcy law. Moreover, I will expand my knowledge by enrolling in my school's bankruptcy course this upcoming semester.

Professors Scott Schang and Margaret Taylor as well as attorney Elise Boike have submitted separate letters of recommendation on my behalf. If there is any other information that might be helpful, please let me know. I would welcome the opportunity to interview with you. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Grace Kinley
